THE LACKAWANNA PRESBYTERY MEETING

Proceedings of the Sessions at Hallstead .- Address by Dr. Parke, Dr.

Robinson and Dr. Mills. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Hallstead, Sept. 22.-The evening session of Tuesday of the Lackawanna Presbytery, now in session in the Presbyterian church in this place, opened by an organ prelude, followed by an anthem by the choir. The scripture reading by Rev. W. F. Colclough, of Monroeton, Pa., was followed by prayer, offered by Rev. F. C. Jones, of Ulster, Pa. The first sermon on Presbyterianism was delivered by Rev. N. G. Parke, D. D., of Pittston, who spoke upon the subject, "The Genesis and Scriptural Authority of Presbyterian-ism." He chose for his text the twentieth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, the seventeenth and twentyeighth verses. Among other things he "The moderator has explained the subject and it has been thoroughly ventilated, and as I look over the audience I am reminded of a general assembly I attended twency-five or thirty years ago, where a number of minis-ters were discussing the subject whether the Presbyterian church was suited to the colored people. The negroes had an idea that the Methodist and Baptist churches were best suited for the colored people. While the discussion was going on an old darkey in the rear of the church arose and said: 'People do not understand Presbyterianism. Brethren, Presbyterianism is Bible and common sense.' The name Presbyterianism suggests itself to be what it is. It is taken from the Greek word Presbuttries. The genesis of Presbyterianism is that from Noah, Moses, Judges, Kings and so on to the present is a government by elders. Church government is represented by ing on hands of Presbytery. Presbyterian government is the most charitable of all church government. We believe it to be the most scriptural and we regard all other governments as valid," elders ordained and set apart by lay-

The second sermon was delivered by Rev. C. E. Robinson, D. D., paster of the Second Presbyterian church of Scranton. He spoke upon the subject, The Doctrine and Polity of the Presbyterian Church" in a very forcible manner.

Rev. Thornton A. Mills, D. D., of Wilkes-Barre, delivered the third address of the evening. He discussed the subject, "The Worship and Work of the Presbyterian Church." He said, in part: "Presbyterian worship is something more than mere deportment of heart. It teaches us that the religion is to be kept holy. We are also taught that we shall so live in our homes that our influence shall be felt. We are also taught that we as parents should see that every one around us, servants and children, should refrain from all secular work on the Sabbath, and that the day should be commenced with

WYOMING.

Miss Laura Davies has returned home from a visit among friends at Forest City. A fair sized audience attended the lecture giver in Music hall on Monday even-ing by Robert J. Burdette on the subject of "Good Medicine." Mr. Burdette caused many bursts of great laughter by his humor. There were such practical truths underlying all of it that those who heard him departed feeling they had been greathim departed feeling they had been great-ly benefited by the administration of his medicina? compounds in mixture of hu-mor, wit and common sense.

The fureral of the Rev. John Latiar was held on Tuesday afternoon from his late residence. There was a large number of friends and fellow ministers of the deceased present. Rev. Wilson Trieble, paster of the Wyoming Methodist church conducted the services. The interment conducted the services. The interment was made in Forty Fort cemetery.

The Wyoming Hose company gave an entertainment in Music hall on Tuesday evening which was patronized by a large number of people.

On Tuesday evening a business meeting of the Bestley Ven People's meeting of th ing of the Baptist Young People's union was held in the Baptist church. The election of officers was held and the following were chosen: President, Robert R. Thompson; vice president, Mrs. Daniel Reese; secretary, Miss Laura Davies; treasurer, Miss Belle Robinson. An hour for Bible study will be devoted hereafter by members of the society and all others who wish to attend on Tuesday evenings. who wish to attend on Tuesday evenings of each week.

William Bryden is quite sick at the home of his on on Fourth street. Mrs. W. C. Price, of Pittsion, and Miss Mary MacClements, of Boston, were guests of Mrs. Charles Penny yesterday. Mrs. William Dawson has returned home from her visit at Sunbury. Charles Law is improving gradually from his severe illness Visit the Dallas Fair. Open from Sept. 28 to Oct. 1, inclusive.

New York, Sept. 22.-The result of oday's transactions on the stock exchange in the recovery of the greater part of the losses sustained in yesterday's sharp reaction, many stocks closing tonight higher than Monday night. During the early part of the day the market was extremely irregu-lar and uncertain in tone, a number of the specialties continuing to show marked weaknesses even after the railroad list had recovered from its reactionary tendency. But by the second hour of trading the bears had practically abandoned their efforts to work a reaction and the whole market was tending slowly upward. The most wheat, 123,000 bushels; corn, 32,000 bushels wheat, 123,000 bushels with the strength of the marked net gains during the day were: onsolidated Gas, 8%; Brooklyn Union Gas, 5%; Sugar, 44; Sugar preferred, 214; Brooklyn Transit, 2%; New Jersey Central, 3%, and Northwest, Omaha and Susquehanna and Western preferred, 21/2 each.
